20 JULY 2005 | A senior official of the Iraqi defense administration revealed that Israel organized several attacks in Iraq covered up by various Salafist and Wahabit Islamic groups. Infiltrated agents of Mossad organized attacks with explosives against embassies and civil targets, including the recent assassination of the Egyptian ambassador. According to the official, "Mossad agents managed to infiltrate during the government of Iyad Allawi thanks to the help of former Defense Minister Hazem Salan and former Interior Minister Fallah Nagib". "They also placed members of the Baas Party in the Iraqi security, intelligence services and in financial posts". After the killing of 500 Iraqi scientists and academics since the beginning of the war, Israel is trying to weaken Iraq and foster popular discontent against the Resistance, and also against the current Shiite government prior to the upcoming elections. And all this is happening surrounded by the silence of the international community...
